ROSE BY NAME, ROSE BY NATURE

Buyers want homes with soul, and this home has soul bursting at the seams. This much-loved, original brick home has been held by the same family for 50 years, and is ready for new owners to move in and call their own.

The sunny front porch is a welcoming entry to this home, and the perfect spot to sit and enjoy your morning coffee.

Stepping inside, this home has been designed with an open plan living area to encourage an easy flow of people and conversation, and to be filled with natural light through well-placed windows.

Filled to the brim with original, retro character and charm, the home is comfortable enough to move straight in, or an easy renovation to breathe new life into the property.

Timber slatted wall divides your entry from the generous lounge room. Evaporative cooling caters for the warmer months, while the electric heater keeps this home toasty in winter.

This timber kitchen is well-equipped with ample storage, an electric stove, good bench space, and is combined with your dining area.

A central hall leads to the 3 bedrooms, with two having built-in robes, and bedroom one with polished floorboards.

A shared bathroom is an untouched memento of the pasts love affair with colour, and comprises of a shower over a pale blue bathtub, vanity and toilet. The strategically located laundry offers direct access to the backyard,
