HERITAGE CHARM MEETS CONTEMPORARY STYLE

Prepare yourself for love at first sight – this enchanting home is ready to steal your heart.

Originally built circa 1920, this remarkable residence beautifully blends enduring character with contemporary refinement. Thoughtfully renovated to breathe new life into the home, each update has been completed with careful respect for its era, preserving the craftsmanship and charm that make it truly special.

From the moment you arrive, the classic Federation façade and inviting wraparound verandah creates a warm and welcoming first impression. Beyond its charming façade, the home unfolds into a generous and versatile floorplan designed for relaxed modern living. Period details, such as soaring pressed metal ceilings, polished timber floors, bay windows and a wide L-shaped hallway that immediately showcases the home's timeless elegance.

The kitchen forms is a true centrepiece, striking the ideal balance between timeless style and modern convenience. Featuring stone benchtops, a classic farmhouse sink, abundant storage and quality finishes, it adjoins a light-filled meals area to create a space that is both functional and visually impressive.

All three bedrooms are warm and comfortable, complete with plush carpeting. Bedrooms one and two are generously sized and feature beautiful bay windows, while the third bedroom offers flexibility as guest accommodation or a home office.
